COMMENCEMENT WELCOME

On Commencement Day, the members who make up the University wear special clothes and disport themselves in a special way. After all, the very day, this day, is special.

The black gowns and colorful attire worn by so many today on this site stand for reasons that are long established, historic, organic and symbolic.

The scholars and students in medieval universities, out of which we emerge, were clerics, friars, monks and priests. In fact, the university as we know it originates ex corde ecclesia, out of the heart of the church. This is no longer the case, of course, but much of what we will see today has a respectable and old pedigree.

The gowns, hoods and hats began life as ecclesiastical vesture.

Commencement is part of a venerable history of ritual, a rite of passage, with special language, protocol, clothes, gestures and symbols. Today we are part of something bigger than ourselves, bigger than Sacred Heart University and bigger than American higher education: we are part of a ritual that goes back for centuries.

Although today we partake in an old tradition, we do it our way, the Sacred Heart way. This is our iteration of a storied rite.

Sacred Heart was founded more than 50 years ago. Our students now, as then, will process with their hoods, caps or mortarboards and receive their diplomas. You will see that re-enacted shortly for your daughter, son, partner, spouse, parent or sibling as they come on stage. Soon, they will process to this space. Allow me now to tell you briefly how that will unfold.

The first person you will see is the mace bearer. At one time a deadly weapon in the medieval armory, the mace now serves a more benign purpose, used ceremonially at the opening of parliaments, as well as university convocations. In commemoration of Sacred Heart's 50th anniversary, a new mace was commissioned. Made of rosewood with two antique, silver-plated brass seals of the University and brass braiding, it is borne aloft by the president of the University Assembly. It is a symbol of authority.

Following the mace bearer are the student government executive board, the senior class officers and the graduates of the College of Arts & Sciences, the Jack Welch

College of Business, the College of Health Professions, the College of Nursing and the Isabelle Farrington College of Education. Then our alumni, spanning the five decades of the University's history, will march in brilliant red robes. The faculty and staff of the University will follow, concluding with the stage party, the composition of which includes trustees, the honorandi, the deans, vice-presidents, provost and president.

In addition to those today who will be awarded earned degrees, the University bestows an honorary degree on an individual who has been designated by the University's Board of Trustees as deserving special honor.

In addition to the resplendent color and rich language of the Commencement ceremony, we also have music provided by the Sacred Heart University Band, the Sacred Heart University Brass Quintet and the Commencement Choir.

A truly festive occasion.

THE UNIVERSITY

The Name. Sacred Heart University was founded in 1963 by the Most Rev. Walter W. Curtis, S.T.D., the second bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport, to provide an institution of higher education that would serve the people of the diocese and region, regardless of their sex, race, creed or religion. In October 1962, Bishop Curtis announced both the plan to open a college the following September, and its name, “Sacred Heart.” The choice of name had a dual origin: it was the name of the bishop’s first pastorate in Bloomfield, N.J., and was a pledge from the bishop attesting to the value of such an institution.

The Mission. Sacred Heart University is a coeducational, independent, comprehensive institution of higher learning in the Catholic intellectual tradition, the primary objective of which is to prepare men and women to live in and make their contributions to the human community. The University aims to assist in the development of people who are knowledgeable of self, rooted in faith, educated in mind, compassionate in heart, responsive to social and civic obligations and able to respond to an ever-changing world. It does this by calling forth the intellectual potential of its students, nurturing each one’s spiritual and moral growth and deepening in them a sense of social responsibility. The University is committed to combining education for life with preparation for professional excellence.

Sacred Heart University is Catholic in tradition and spirit. As a Catholic university, it seeks to play its appropriate role in the modern world. It exemplifies in its life the Judeo-Christian values of the God-given freedom and dignity of every person. Inspired by the ecumenical spirit of the Second Vatican Council, Sacred Heart University welcomes men and women of all religious traditions and beliefs who share its concerns for truth, scholarship, the dignity of humans, freedom and the betterment of society. It values religious diversity as enhancing the University community and creating opportunities for dialogue in the common search for truth.

Through its curricular and co-curricular activities and campus ministry programs, the University provides the context in which students have the opportunity to appropriate their own religious traditions in a critical fashion. Sacred Heart University challenges its students to think critically, analyze carefully, evaluate with a sense of justice and proportion and convey conclusions in an intelligible and articulate fashion. The University provides the environment in which its students can develop the aesthetic dimension of life by nurturing their abilities to imagine, create and appreciate. It enables students to acquire a rich understanding of their own cultural and family heritages, so as to assume their responsibilities as conveyors and creators of culture and family. As a community of teachers and scholars, Sacred Heart University exists for the pursuit of truth. It joins with other colleges and universities in the task of expanding human knowledge and deepening human understanding. It encourages and supports the scholarly and artistic work of its faculty and students. Further, it has a responsibility to share its resources and its special gifts and talents for the betterment of the human community. All members of the University community are strongly encouraged to participate in the wider community through service to others, especially the poor. From its founding, the University has been recognized for its caring approach to students. This approach expresses the University’s belief that each student is born with a unique set of qualities and skills. It respects the personal and academic freedom of each of its members, while at the same time fostering a genuine experience of community. By so doing, it creates the environment in which each person in the University shares in common goals and a common commitment to truth, justice and concern for others.

The official seal of Sacred Heart University was introduced on July 22, 1963. The original pen-and-ink drawing hangs in the diocesan museum at The Catholic Center in Bridgeport. The seal consists of a shield surrounded by the inscription, Universitas Sacri Cordis, in large letters. The shield comprises a dexter—the right-hand side of a shield (the left, as seen by the viewer)—and a sinister, the left-hand side of a shield. The dexter impalement bears the jurisdictional arms of the Bridgeport diocese. The bridge above waves of flowing water affords an apt expression of the name of the diocese that encompasses Fairfield County, Connecticut, where Sacred Heart University is located. The bridge represents service, which forges strong bonds of understanding and unity among diverse constituencies, while the vivifying water symbolizes the “port” by which new knowledge and ideas energize the scholars who commit themselves to the disciplines of academic inquiry. The Cross of Our Faith above the bridge dignifies the other symbols and identifies the University as a community that celebrates the richness of the Catholic intellectual traditions.

The sinister impalement displays the personal coat of arms of the Most Rev. Walter W. Curtis, S.T.D., the founder of Sacred Heart University and the second bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport. The central checkered bar, taken from the Curtis family coat of arms, suggests the collaborative nature of the learning community, in which each individual member contributes to the integrity of the whole. The two diamond-shaped lozenges, taken from the Costello family shield to honor the bishop’s mother, are placed in the upper portion to highlight the University’s two most precious treasures: Love, the compassion of God as symbolized in the Sacred Heart of Jesus; and Truth, the goal of all scholarly activity. The University shield also honors Mary, the Seat of Wisdom, by including the crescent moon, which is the symbol of Our Lady under the title of the Immaculate Conception, chosen to signify the years that Bishop Curtis spent as a professor of moral theology at Immaculate Conception Seminary.

The Mace. During the Middle Ages, the wood mace clad in metal was an effective weapon in battle, but as newer and more powerful military arms developed, it was transformed into a symbol of dignity and authority. The earliest ceremonial maces were borne by bodyguards of 12th-century English and French kings; by the end of the 16th century, they were used widely by officials of English cities and towns. Today, the use of the ceremonial mace is found in the British House of Parliament, carried before ecclesiastical dignitaries and in university and college commencements and convocations. The Sacred Heart University mace, which serves as a visible reminder of the University’s history, authority and status, is carried by the president of the University Academic Assembly. In commemoration of Sacred Heart’s 50th anniversary, a new mace was commissioned. It is a 54-inch mace with two, three-inch, antique, silver-plated brass medals and brass braiding on the rosewood staff. The new mace signifies the growth of Sacred Heart during the past 50 years, as well as its continued commitment to tradition and academic rigor.

Academic Dress. Tradition holds that the cap and gown were first used in ancient Greece, when only youths of wealthy parents or those with patrons attended school. The wise teachers of the time believed that fine clothing and jewels should not be worn by the scholar but rather, that the scholar should wear the garments of the worker. In the United States, the gown commonly worn for both the associate’s and bachelor’s degrees has pointed sleeves (with a slit for the arm). It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master’s degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped open sleeves. All gowns are black and without trimming, with the exception of the doctoral gown, which normally is trimmed with velvet, has three bars or chevrons on the sleeves and may be in distinctive color(s) governed by the school granting that degree. The master’s and doctoral gowns may be worn open.

Upon graduation, students of old carried a mortarboard showing them to be masons of the future destined to build empires or cities or fountains of wisdom on the firm foundation of knowledge. To this day, graduates wear mortarboard caps, symbolizing that they are builders of the future.

The history of the hood, with which degree recipients are invested, dates back to 13th-century England. Whether its origin is ecclesiastical or secular has never been settled. Hoods are two-and-one-half feet long for the associate, three feet for the bachelor’s, three-and-one-half feet for the master’s and four feet for the doctoral degree. The hood is lined with the colors of the institution—red and grey, in the case of Sacred Heart University. The color of the trim indicates the academic degree: white for arts, letters and humanities (B.A.) and golden yellow for science (B.S.). The hoods of those with graduate degrees, as well as the tassels on the undergraduates’ mortarboards, are often in the color associated with the academic field of specialization, as follows:

WHITE	APRICOT
Arts, Letters and Humanities	Nursing
DRAB	SLATE BLUE
Business	Occupational Therapy
LIGHT BLUE	DARK BLUE
Education	Philosophy
BROWN	TEAL
Fine Arts	Physical Therapy
PURPLE	GOLDEN YELLOW
Law	Science
CRIMSON	CITRON
Media Studies	Sociology, Social Work and Criminal Justice
PINK	SCARLET
Music	Theology and Religious Studies

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

DOCTOR OF THEOLOGY, HONORIS CAUSA

MOST REVEREND FRANK J. CAGGIANO, S.T.D.
Fifth Bishop of Bridgeport

The Most Reverend Frank J. Caggiano was installed as fifth bishop of Bridgeport on Thursday, September 19, 2013, at St. Theresa Church in Trumbull. On February 22, 2014, he formally convoked the 4th Synod of the Diocese of Bridgeport, the first in 32 years, as an opportunity for renewal and pastoral planning. More than 8,000 faithful turned out for the synod's closing Mass celebration at Webster Bank Arena on September 19, 2015. Under his leadership, the diocese has launched the Catholic Service Corps, the Diocesan Leadership Institute, ongoing Strategic and Pastoral Planning and other initiatives to renew the liturgical and pastoral life of the diocese.

Born and raised in the Gravesend section of Brooklyn, N.Y., he was admitted to Yale University in 1977 and transferred to the former Cathedral College of the Immaculate Conception in Douglaston (Queens), N.Y., where he graduated summa cum laude. After briefly working in the publishing industry, he was ordained to the priesthood on May 16, 1987, in the chapel of the Immaculate Conception Center in Douglaston.

A noted catechist, the bishop was invited by Pope Benedict XVI to deliver World Youth Day talks in Sydney in 2008 and Madrid in 2011. Pope Francis invited him to serve as a catechist at World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro in 2013. He also preached at the Youth 2000 Summer Festival in Tipperary, Ireland.

He currently serves on five committees of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops: Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis; Subcommittee on the Catechism; Committee on Doctrine; Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth; and Committee on Priorities and Plans.

Senior Class Gift Campaign

Thank you to members of the class of 2017 who contributed to the Forever Pioneers Senior Class Gift Campaign. The philanthropic spirit across campus is vibrant, with graduating seniors helping to set a new University student philanthropy participation record. More than 400 seniors have given back to elements of the Sacred Heart community that matter most, including scholarship support, academic programs, performing arts, student organizations, athletic teams and volunteer service initiatives.

Students wearing green cords today with their academic regalia are recognized for making special gifts of $20.17 in honor of their graduation year.

Best of luck to all of you in the next chapter of your lives. We hope you will always consider Sacred Heart University your home away from home.
